The visitors pay attention to details. Moreover, research proves that visual impression makes an impact on how people estimate the value. The Purpose of Cocktail Menu Cover

A cocktail menu cover plays an important role in establishing the overall atmosphere of drinking. Moreover, it tells the visitors that the establishment cares about the quality and professionalism. TUDOR JONES develops these products using high-quality stitching and finishing making the cocktail menu covers durable and luxurious. As a result, the visitors take their time while choosing drinks, making more expensive orders.

Menu Covers in Leather: A Classic Option

If you want your product to last long, then the menu covers in leather have to be considered first. While man-made materials wear and tear quickly, the leather will develop a beautiful patina with time without losing its appeal. In addition, leather is incredibly strong and resistant to wear.

We choose leather purposefully because of its durability which we provide our customers – hotels and restaurants cooperating with us. Besides, our menu covers in leather can also be customized by adding embossed logos for your venue.
